

Learning Objectives

Upon completion of this activity learners will be able to:

- Identify at least three evidence-based strategies to enhance workforce engagement, reduce burnout and address workforce shortages.
- Evaluate innovative care delivery models, including hospital-at-home and AI-supported workflows, and assess their impact on quality, efficiency and patient outcomes.
- Describe practical approaches for improving access to care through community partnerships, care coordination and population health strategies.
- Apply lessons from peer organizations to strengthen clinical quality, streamline operations and improve financial sustainability.
- Analyze leadership approaches for navigating change, fostering resilient teams and advancing organizational transformation.

Target Audience

This conference is intended for CEOs, COOs, CFOs, CMOs, CNOs, CIOs and other C-suite leaders, as well as VPs, Physician Leaders, Advanced Practice Professionals, Directors and Managers overseeing patient care, strategy, innovation, digital transformation, finance, workforce and policy, as well as health care leaders who are shaping the future of patient-centered care and health system transformation.

Accreditation & Credit Designation

This activity has been planned and implemented in accordance with the accreditation requirements and policies of the Accreditation Council for Continuing Medical Education (ACCME) through the joint providership of the Academy for Continued Healthcare Learning (ACHL) and the American Hospital Association (AHA). ACHL is accredited by the ACCME to provide continuing medical education for physicians.

The Academy for Continued Healthcare Learning designates this live activity for a maximum of 11.5 AMA.PRA.Category.7.Credits™. Physicians should claim only the credit commensurate with the extent of their participation in the activity.

Physician assistants, nurse practitioners, and nurses may participate in this educational activity and earn a certificate of completion as AAPA, AANP, and ANCC accept AMA.PRA.Category.7.Credits™ through their reciprocity agreements.

To Receive Credit

To receive credit, learners are required to participate in one or more CME-designated sessions and complete an evaluation sent via email following the meeting. Once the survey is completed a certificate will be immediately available. There is no fee for the generation of the certificate. Inquiries may be directed to ACHL at (877) 444-8435, ext. 160.

Disclaimer

The content of this activity was developed independently of any ineligible company. All materials are included with permission. The opinions expressed are those of the faculty and are not to be construed as those of any publisher or grantor.

This educational activity was planned and produced in accordance with the ACCME Standards for Integrity and Independence in Accredited Continuing Education. Recommendations involving clinical medicine in a continuing medical education (CME/CE) activity must be based on evidence that is accepted within the profession of medicine as adequate justification for their indications and contraindications in the care of patients. All scientific research referred to, reported, or used in CME/CE in support or justification of a patient care recommendation must conform to the generally accepted standards of experimental design, data collection, and analysis.

This CME/CE activity might describe the off-label, investigational, or experimental use of medications and/or devices that may exceed their FDA-approved labeling. Physicians should consult the current manufacturers' prescribing information for these products. ACHL requires the speaker to disclose that a product is not labeled for use under discussion.

Providership

Accreditation provided by the Academy for Continued Healthcare Learning (ACHL) in collaboration with the American Hospital Association.
